

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

BONNIE LAM,

PLAINTIFF,

v.

STATE STREET CORPORATION AND STATE STREET TRUST & BANK CO.,

DEFENDANTS.

CASE No. 24-CV-6098

MOTION TO PROVISIONALLY SEAL EXHIBIT

Plaintiff just filed a reply letter in support of her motion to continue the deadline to amend her claims as a matter of right (see Dkt. 17) and she attached an exhibit (A) that was marked as confidential by State Street under the Protective Order in this case. Plaintiff disputes that these documents are in fact confidential under the terms of the Protective Order and otherwise denies that they are subject to sealing (and will oppose a motion from State Street, if any, to keep them permanently sealed). However, consistent with the Protective Order, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court maintain these documents provisionally under seal until such time as Defendants either: (1) agree they can be publicly filed on the docket; or (2) until Defendants have the opportunity to file a motion to permanently seal the docket (which Plaintiff will oppose).
